

Latoya Lackey
Dale Carnegie Training
Corporate Accounts and Tuition Assistance

Latoya Lackey is a Nashville native (well, since her 1st birthday anyway). She has spent most of her career helping others achieve their goals. In her 10 years at Dale Carnegie Training of Tennessee, she has served in various roles. Starting out as office manager for two franchisees in the southeast, she supported six regional offices. She then moved on to the role of Marketing Coordinator, rolling out marketing campaigns and driving business. From there, it was a natural transition into becoming a Performance Consultant, working with clients to develop their leaders and move ahead in business. Today Latoya serves as Corporate Accounts and Tuition Assistance Specialist working with many of Nashville's top companies. When she is not working, Latoya is usually spending time with her thirty kids – as a youth pastor. She enjoys pouring hope and grace into teens each week. She also leads the Cross-Fire worship band and, when needed, will step in to play drums.

Speaking to communicate a message that will inspire her listeners to MOVE is what she loves best. If you hear her at a luncheon, in your board room, or at your local church retreat; you are guaranteed to be moved to action!
